SIMONS SEARCHL&GHT

Survey 4 Access to education, therapies, and services during COVID-19

Sent to 664 families

Completed by 352 families

Collected Nov 12, 2020 to Nov 30, 2020

Across 55 different genetic conditions and 28 countries

Who Participated?

Survey 4 participant demographics were similar to Simons Searchlight COVID-19 surveys 1-3.

Effects on services

Disruptions to services, therapies or medical supports due to COVID-19 decreased since survey 2.

Dependents received more therapies in-person

Applied Behavior Analysis Services

75%

14%

75% of ABA services or other behavioral therapies were being received in-person.

14% of ABA services were being provided through a hybrid model (remote/in-person).

Physical or Occupational Therapy

61%

19%

61% of physical or occupational therapy was received in-person.

19% of physical or occupational therapy was being provided through a hybrid model (remote/in-person).

What school looked like

Dependents had more access to in-person education.

92% of respondents said their child had an individualized education plan, or IEP.

of caregivers were satisfied with their child's IEP.

Most caregivers were satisfied with their current school experience.

Satisfied or very satisfied 65%

Neither satisfied nor dissatisfied 16%

Dissatisfied or very dissatisfied 19%

Wearing masks during COVID-19

of children were required to wear masks to participate in their regular activities.

47% of children were not.

Some children were having difficulties wearing a face mask.

38% having difficulties.

62% were not.

For children having difficulties wearing a face mask, this was disruptive.

65% had a moderate to severe disruption.

35% had minimal or no disruption.

SARS-CoV-2 infection with a genetic condition reported being hospitalized from SARS-CoV-2 to date.

A special thank you to the families who shared their experiences with us!

SimonsSearchlight.org